For a local outing that pairs food shopping with a look at area-made goods, The Woodlands Farmer's Market at Grogan's Mill is listed as a Saturday option through Dec. 19, 2026. The next market date shown after Nov. 2 is Saturday, Nov. 7.

The Visit The Woodlands event listing places the market at 7 Switchbud Place, The Woodlands, TX 77380, and lists free admission. Its October–June hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The market's public description says shoppers can find goods made by local artisans and grown by area farmers. A separate Visit The Woodlands page describes a gathering of local purveyors, farmers and artisans, and mentions handmade soaps, art and live music among the offerings.

That makes the market a possible way to browse a mix of local food and handmade goods in one stop. The public information does not name the vendors attending on a particular Saturday, however, or guarantee which products will be available. Treat the examples as a description of the market, not a promise about any specific visit.

If you're planning a shopping list, it may help to think of the market as a place to explore rather than a guaranteed source for a particular item. The public listing doesn't provide a current vendor roster or product-by-product availability. Shoppers looking for something specific should check with the market before making the trip.

The posted schedule also deserves a quick recheck before leaving. The dates, address and hours here come from Visit The Woodlands' public event listing, retrieved Nov. 2, 2026; its information could change, including because of weather or a schedule update. Confirm the latest details with the market or its official listing before setting out.
